

Lead Yourself First

Leadership & Ethics for Fire and Public Safety Professionals

Leadership begins with YOU!

This course is designed to address the importance of ethical leadership principles for all ranks and personnel within fire and public safety agencies. It will explore why each individual must take responsibility for themselves and "Lead Yourself First" before you embark on a journey to lead others.

Attendees will learn:

- Why leadership is a privilege and must be exercised with commitment and care for people
- How leadership and ethics must co-exist in your private and professional life
- Simple and effective tips to improve your leadership style
- Techniques to improve your relationships with others
- Why integrity is the cornerstone of everything you say and do
- How to recognize, develop and embrace leadership at all levels in your organization
- Effective techniques to improve your communication skills with others
- Why adversity may be disguised as an opportunity
- Why balance between work, home and your community is critical for your survival
- How to lead with integrity, transparency and the direct link to your credibility as a leader
- How your personal credibility will determine your reputation and legacy as an effective leader

TRAVIS CHANEY

Undersheriff (Retired)

This program is designed for all personnel and ranks, from bottom to top, within agencies and organizations who are in supervisory or leadership positions or who aspire to become leaders in the future. This course teaches core leadership values and ethical principles by emphasizing taking personal responsibility to "Lead Yourself First." This program will explore and discuss the individual's role in creating a positive and dynamic leadership environment and the importance of maintaining a professional culture which embodies trust and integrity. Through direct presentation, candid discussions, relevant case study and informative group exercise's, this course goes to the heart of effective and ethical leadership.

This course will be taught by Undersheriff (Ret.) Travis Chaney, who is a direct and to the point instructor with nearly 40 years in the, law & fire, public safety arena. He has a wealth of experience in ethical decision making and building a leadership culture within his agency. Undersheriff Chaney with his direct approach keeps his classes lively, open and engaged. You are sure to take away many practical tools and a new perspective on the vital importance of ethical leadership and the role you play in developing leadership courage.

When: March 3rd, 2018
Time: 8:30 am—4:30 pm
Where: Lake City High School
REGISTER HERE

No cost for Registration
Limit 60